Collect

O Lord, from whom all good things do come: grant to us thy humble servants; that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am a man." And Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I perceive that God shows no partiality, but in every nation any one who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. For they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, "Can any one forbid water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.

Alleluia

After the First Reading this Alleluia is to be recited at the 8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses, and to be chanted at 10:30 am Mass

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Christ is risen, and hath showed his light unto us: whom he hath redeemed with his most precious Blood.
Alleluia.

Second Reading

1 John 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins.

Alleluia

After the Second Reading this Alleluia is to be recited at the 8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses, and to be chanted at 10:30 am Mass

Alleluia. Alleluia.

I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father.
Alleluia

Gospel

John 15:9-17

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. This I command you, to love one another.

A wonderful gift for St. Mary the Virgin

I informed the Parish Council on Wednesday night of a wonderful gift that can now be announced.

St. Mary the Virgin has formally received a generous and sizable bequest from the estate of Mary Schad. Before she died she directed the executor of her estate that some shall be used for the beautification and enhancement of our sanctuary and nave. Some concept drawings are now being drawn up that will reflect some of the improvements we are now considering. I anticipate that Mary's wishes will be truly fulfilled and will honor her memory and her gift.

Let us now rejoice and give thanks to God for his gracious hand in all thy works. And may we give thanks to our Blessed Mother, for her guidance, support and patience. Deo gratias!
Fr. Dean

To the parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin,

“God wills that all his gifts should come to us through Mary” (St. Bernard)

The early Christian Fathers venerated Mary as a model of how we may all live our lives. When she said to God, “let it be to me according to your word,” she was submitting herself to the will of God in a truly holy and virtuous way. Since the days of the early church, there have been various devotions to Mary, and the crowning of Mary is but one devotion that has its roots in the early church as all generations have come to appreciate her virtuous model of life. Today we honor the statue of Mary with a wreath of blossoms to indicate Mary’s virtues, virtues that we all may imitate.

“It was in Rome, towards the end of the 18th century, one fine evening in May. A child of the poor gathered his companions around him and led them to a statue of Mary, before which a lamp was burning, as is the custom in that holy city. There, these fresh young voices sang the Litany of our Lady. The next day, the little group, followed by other children, again gathered at the feet of the Mother of God. Next came their mothers, to join the little assembly. Soon, other groups were formed, and the devotion rapidly became popular. Holy souls, troubled by the disorderly conduct which always increases and becomes graver at the return of the pleasant springtime, saw in these growing practices the hand of God, and they cooperated with the designs of Providence by approving and promoting this new devotion, as a public and solemn act of reparation. The Month of Mary was founded.”
(A Month with Mary, London, 1950)

“This is the month in which, in the churches and individual homes, the most affectionate and fervent homage of prayers and devotions from the hearts of Christians is raised to Mary. It is also the month in which from his throne descent upon us the most generous and abundant gifts of the Divine Mercy.”
(Pope Paul VI, The Month of Mary, 1967)

“In our own times, we Catholics, wanting to be close to her always, offer her special presents in May: pilgrimages, visits to churches dedicated to her, little sacrifices in her honor, periods of study and well-finished work offered up to her, and a more attentive recitation of the rosary.” (Handbook of Prayers, Midwest Theological Forum, 2011)
